

APPLICATION FOR CREDIT

Singapore Campus students ONLY

If you have previously studied at university or TAFE, you may be eligible for credit toward your current or prospective University of Newcastle program. If you wish to be considered for credit for previous studies, please attach the following information:

- a certified copy of your academic transcripts/s (except for current or past students of the University of Newcastle)
- evidence of program/course completion (if applicable)
- program/course outline/s including subject information, from official publications or handouts, as follows:
 - full subject description/s (content, method of assessments, hours of contact, duration of subject, unit value)
 - list of texts used, if available

All subject information must be from official publications or handouts. If your academic transcripts are in your previous family name, certified copies of documentary evidence of your change of name must be provided, eg. marriage certificate, deed poll.
