

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE: SUBSIDIARY MANAGEMENT

The Institute hosted a November 13-14 international research conference on subsidiary management, organized jointly with Professor Joseph Cheng, Director, Centre for International Business Education and Research, University of Illinois, Champagne-Urbana, Dr Elizabeth Maitland, School of Management and Organisation, UNSW and Professor Stephen Nicholas, Director, Institute of Institutional and Organisational Performance.

The Conference attracted leading North American, European and Asian scholars, as well as leading researchers from Australia.

The Conference papers were published as:

Managing Subsidiary Dynamics: Headquarters Role, Capability Development, and China Strategy (eds) Maitland, E and Cheng, J (Emerald, 2009)

The participants were:

Cyril Bouquet (York University, Toronto).

Professor J.T. Li (HKUST) and Dr Jing-Yu Yang (Sydney University).

Professor Sea-Jin Chang (Korea University)

Professor Tim Divenney (AGSM).

Professor Lorraine Eden (University of Texas)

Dr Andre Sammartino (University of Melbourne)-

Dr Wang Yue (University of New South Wales)

Dr Chris Wright (University of New South Wales)

Pierre Richard (AGSM)

Dr Liang Fan (University of Tasmania)

Sebastian Reiche (University of Melbourne)

Professor Joseph Cheng Director, Centre for International Business Education and Research, University of Illinois, Champagne-Urbana

Dr Elizabeth Maitland, School of Management and Organisation, UNSW

Professor Stephen Nicholas, Director, Institute of Institutional and Organisational Performance, University of Newcastle