

Invitation to the book launch of

Weaving Lives Together at Bawaka

Lak Lak Burarrwanga - Djawundil Maymuru - Ritjilili Ganambarr - Banbapuy Ganambarr
Sarah Wright - Sandie Suchet-Pearson - Kate Lloyd

The University of Newcastle, Macquarie University, Bawaka Cultural Experiences, Gay'wu Women's Program

Friday 5th September

11am-1pm Workshop 1pm-2.30pm Book Launch

Wollotuka, The University of Newcastle

For more information or to RSVP for the workshop please contact Sarah Wright
Centre for Urban and Regional Studies The University of Newcastle Ph: +61 2 4921 7157 Email: sarah.wright@newcastle.edu.au

Book Launch Details and Schedule

- 10-11am Presentation by Professor Lynette Russell, Centre of Australian Indigenous Studies, Monash University
From Anthropological Specimen to Historical Actor: the "last Tasmanian male" William Lanné, whaler, shipmate and friend.
Location: Birabahn Building, SAS2.05
- 11am-1pm Workshop: 'Weaving and Talking' by Lak Lak Burarrwanga and Djawundil Maymuru, Bawaka Cultural Experiences and Gay'wu Women's Program (RSVP required)
Morning tea provided.
Location: Wollotuka fire-pit
- 1pm-2.30pm Official Book Launch: "Weaving lives together at Bawaka North East Arnhem Land: a story of weaving and culture"
BBQ lunch provided
Location: Birabahn Building, Foyer
Photos on display, book and baskets available for purchase

For more information or to RSVP for the workshop please contact:
Sarah Wright, Centre for Urban and Regional Studies, The University of Newcastle
Ph: 49217157 Email: sarah.wright@newcastle.edu.au

Mail orders: Adrienne Willing on 08 8987 3433 or email tourismhub@bigpond.com