

Humanity 2008

Truth & Artifice

Table of Contents

- Julietta Gibbons: Artifice in Writing the Truth in a Memoir of Early Childhood
- Anne Marie Monchamp: Alètheia
- Edward Bridge: Enslaved to an artifice: a study into the self-designation, 'slave/servant', as used in the Ancient Near East before the time of Alexander the Great.
- Silma Ihram: Muslim Youth Interpretations of a Misunderstood Leadership
- Cheryl Dawes: The Queen Consort and the imprisoned courtier: the burden of conversion.
- Robert Dick: Communism in Australia -- False Promises
- Peter Bower: Turning Beer into Whine: An Exploration of Newcastle and Hunter Valley Establishments
- Erin Ison: Bombs, “reds under the bed”, and the media: The Menzies Government’s manipulation of public opinion, 1949–1957
- Paul Chojenta: Celluloid Historians: Understanding Watergate through All the President’s Men.
- Jenny Strong: Holistic practice without spirituality? Truth and Artifice in a Child Health setting.
- Patrick Bryson: Truth and Artifice: Representations of madness and the schizoid personality
- Francesca Bell: Giving the Worm No Hollow Food